Keep The Legacy Alive

The Keep The Legacy Alive fundraiser dinner was held May 16 at the Enterprise Elks Lodge. The Event focus was raising funds for the Patio project.

Sixty-Seven people attended the dinner. The evening, filled with fun and activities, raised about $14,700 for the Patio project. There was never a dull moment. The Sticky-Ball competition drew lots of competitors plus the dessert table competition, Silent auction and Live auction were also big hits.

Randall Eschler was the Master of Ceremony and auctioneer for the Live auction. Eva Barnes won the contest for best woman's costume and Tony Chrisman won best man's costume. Chad Stangel won the Sticky Ball competition with a score of 200. Amy Stangel won the door prize of a flight into the Minam Lodge with breakfast for two.

A big thank you to all who provided desserts for the dessert table competition which raised about $1,500.

Live Auction Winners: Crystal and Rob DeSpain won the bid for the Brasada Ranch Stay and Play; Bill and Judy Ables won the bid for the Marcus Whitman Stay and Play. Kathy and Mike Reynolds won the bid for the Cooler of Meat and Seafood; Brad and Orianna Leith won the bid for Top Golf in Boise; and Curtis and Linnaea Martin won the bid for the Summer of Golf Tournaments. Cody Aschenbrenner won the bid for the Sticky Golf game.

Bidding was lively and tense at times, but lots of fun.

With all the great prizes, hopefully no loser's remorse!

Board Buzz

The AMGC Board met on Tuesday, May 12, 2026.

Golf Cart Drivers: The directors discussed the minimum age to drive golf carts on the course. It was decided that the minimum age will be 16 with a valid driver's license.

Patio Project: The Patio project has begun. Thanks to Brian and Mike Rahn for their hard work and use of their equipment.

The cement has been removed and hauled away. Charlie Kissinger and his crew have donated their time to supervise and do most of the work on the construction. JayZee Lumber donated materials for bracing the roof over the patio. The decking material had to be ordered and hopefully arrived on Tuesday, May 26th.

More Foundation News: The Wallowa County Commissioners awarded the Foundation $3,000 for the Patio project, and the City of Enterprise gave the Foundation $15,000 for the project.

The Foundation has applied for a grant from Soroptimist International of Wallowa County to help expand the Junior Golf Camp this summer. They will know sometime in June if they are successful.

The next Foundation meeting is June 9 at 4:00 p.m. at the AMGC Clubhouse. It is open to anyone who would like to attend.

Next AMGC Board Meeting: Tuesday, June 16 at 5:00 p.m. at AMGC.
