

GAYLE BECK MEMORIAL TOURNAMENT

Why did the name of the Ladies Invitational Tournament get changed to the Gayle Beck Memorial Tournament? It happened because of a gal named Gayle Beck who loved to play golf and was treasured by all who knew her.

Kathy Reynolds says, Gayle had a hearty laugh, great personality, a passion for golf and by the way, she could hit the golf ball as straight as an arrow. She loved to cook, play Fantasy Football, bowl and she raised horses.

Gayle was born January 10, 1929 and died at the age of 86 on June 27, 2015. In her later years, she was winding down golf and wanted to trade in her golf cart for a washer and dryer. At that time, Rochelle Danielson was in the market for a golf cart. She purchased Gayle's "beautiful" golf cart, which she still drives today.

Rochelle remembers Mali Hagen and Gayle golfing together. She says Mali would tell Gayle, "You're swinging that club like a girl!" and Gayle would just laugh her hearty laugh and hit the ball. Rochelle says, I miss her to this day.

Beth Hough rescued this cookbook at Soroptimist. The Ladies Golf Association created it in 1998. It's filled with yummy-sounding recipes submitted by active lady-golfers at that time. Most are now gone.

As space allows some of these recipes will appear in the Newsletter. Gayle Beck contributed several recipes including these two:

PAPER BAG APPLE PIE

5 large baking apples (2 ½ lbs.) sliced
½ c cup sugar
2 Tbsp. flour
1 teas. cinnamon
2 Tbsp. lemon juice
½ cup flour
½ cup butter
½ cup sugar
1 9" pie crust

Mix together apples, ½ cup sugar, 2 Tbsp. flour, cinnamon and lemon juice. Pour into pie crust.

Mix together ½ cup flour, butter and ½ cup sugar. Sprinkle over top of apple mixture.

Slide pie into a brown paper bag (heavy shopping type). Fold the open end twice and staple or clip together. Bake 1 hour at 425°F.

CHICKEN TERIYAKI

1 fryer, cut up (or 6 chicken breasts)
½ cup Kikkoman Soy Sauce
½ cup white wine (or orange juice)
1 Tbsp. sugar
1 Teas. Garlic salt

Place chicken in baking dish. Combine other ingredients. Pour over chicken. Let stand 2 hours. Bake 1-1/2 hours at 325 °F. Baste occasionally.

Board Buzz

The AMGC Board met August 12.

1. Election Results: Curtis Martin and Marc Christman were elected to 3-year terms. Congratulations!
2. Residential punch cards will be valid to October 15.
3. There has been some misuse of the Unlimited Range Ball policy. In 2026 Unlimited Range Balls will be on a punch card for individuals and families.
4. AMGC financial position at this point in the season is very sound.
5. There was discussion about the safety of the bridge on hole #9. It will be discussed further at the next meeting.
6. Discussed sand trap material. Buffalo Peak uses a material that might work for AMGC. More research needs to be done and reported back to the Board.
7. Forty-seven teams are registered for the Rat Race. There is room for a couple more teams.
8. A Chair for the 2026 Rat Race is needed. Interested parties should contact Mona Williams.

The next Board Meeting will be Tuesday, September 9 at 5:00 p.m. at the Clubhouse.

OGA Rule of The Month

Each month The Rule of the Month is published in the Oregon Golf Association Newsletter.

“Life is short. Break the Rules...” -- Mark Twain.

“The above might be good advice from Twain, except when it comes to the game of golf. By offering the same advice to golfers during a round, Twain would almost be certainly breaching Rule 10, which covers preparing for and making a stroke; advice and help, and caddies”.

Here is the link to this month’s article by Terry McEvilly, OGA Senior Rules Official: Rule of the Month: Advice and Consent Check it out.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

They say the best time to start golfing is when you're young. Nine youth, ages 10-15 have caught the "Golf Bug".

The young-golfers played nine holes on Thursdays for five weeks this summer in Junior League.

Hadyn Hull and Declan Stangel agree, "It's really been fun."

Scott Marcum, far right, gives instructions to the young golfers. L to R: Landon Marcum, age 14 started golfing last year. Carson Sutton, age 12 started playing when he was 6 years old. Parker Sutton, age 9 began playing when he was 6 years old. Declan Stangel, age 13 started playing at 5 or 6 years old. Weston Rogers, age 12 started golfing last year. Hadyn Hull, age 13 started golfing when he was in kindergarten.
